New York, N. Y., April 8, 1935.

Gentlemen:

If we have as good luck with these as we had with the trees we bought from you last year, we will be mighty well pleas'd. All of the trees purchased from you last year resposded splendidly.

Very truly yours, T. A. Ryan.

Mystic, Conn., April 3, 1936.

Gentlemen:

Two years ago the 300 trees purchased from you and set on land adjoining this block all lived.

Yours very truly, Robert Whittle,
